

The Pet Piller Syringe has finger rings for better control when giving a tablet or capsule. The soft rubber jaws that hold the tablet/capsule reduces the chance of injury. Water can be drawn into the syringe. When giving the medication, the water will aid and encourage swallowing. The barrel is transparent barre and the handle and plunger are green.

This syringe is especially useful in giving oral medications to cats and difficult to pill dogs.